Jayden's Dragon War

Dragon War

There once were lots and lots of dragons. They protected a most powerful dragon egg, but this egg had a very bad dragon in it and when it hatched it tried to destroy all the other dragons but one was able to stop it. After a long battle that last 2091 days the evil dragon had destroyed just about everything and the good dragon teamed up with man to stop the evil dragon. But the evil dragon turned his focus on man and destroyed their cities and armies, intent on ruling the world, which created the first human/dragon war. More evil dragons were born and they took over the world.

The evil dragons were so powerful that there was no stopping them. But the last good dragon sacrificed his life and used the last of his great power to destroy the evil dragons and brought peace back to the world.
